About the Director

Andy Carter is a 1997 Graduate of Orange High School and a 2001 Graduate of Western Carolina University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Education with a focus on K-12 Music Education. Carter began his teacher career at North Duplin Jr/Sr High School where he was responsible for both middle and high school band programs. While at NDHS, bands attended District Festival for the first time in the schools 75 year history earning only Excellent Ratings. In addition, several students were selected to participate in All-County and All-District Bands. In the spring of 2004 Carter was appointed Director of Bands at Orange High School where he is currently. Bands under his leadership have earned only Excellent and Superior Ratings. During his tenure at OHS students have participated in All-District Band, All-Region Jazz Band, All-State Band, and All-State Jazz Band and UNCG All-Carolina Band. In Fall of 2006 Carter was elected as North Carolina Music Educator's Association Jazz Chair. In the spring of 2005 Carter was elected as a member at large to the Central District Bandmasters Association Board of Directors. Carter resides in Graham with his wife Amy and daughter Addison. He and his wife are active members in the music department at Harvest Hills Church of God in Burlington, NC.
